A Historic Gem with Endless Possibilities. Located in the heart of Blairmore, this striking brick building was once home to a Royal Bank. It still features its original vaults, offering a unique blend of historic charm and modern potential. Currently leased as an office hub with six private workspaces, this property is ready for its next chapter. With a walkout basement, a second floor patio offering stunning views, and off street parking, the possibilities are limitless. Whether you're envisioning a coffee shop, boutique retail space, co working hub, or a combination of all three, the building's layout and prime location provide incredible opportunity. Recent updates include some new windows, LED lighting, and a new roof August 2025. The upstairs apartment retains timeless character with original woodwork and a clawfoot tub offering the perfect canvas for creating a unique live/work space. Set on a high visibility stretch of Main Street, this is your chance to own a piece of Crowsnest Pass history and make it your own.
